We were so sorry to hear that Sharon Moore has resigned as vice-chair of governors. Over the last 6 years, she has been the 'perfect' governor, bringing safeguarding expertise, knowledge of SEN, diligence in her role, & always ensuring the school provides the best education it can. She will be hugely missed.

If you claim certain benefits, including universal credit, your child may be entitled to free school meals, including supermarket vouchers during the holidays. Call into the office for a form, or to check the list of benefits. If you don't ask, you don't get!

Parents are already claiming a FREE disco ticket for their child by volunteering to supervise the infants from 5.30-6.30pm, or the juniors from 6.45-8.00pm. You could be giving out refreshments, overseeing the corridor, or showing the children your best dance moves in the hall!!

Is there a small group of folks out there who are feeling particularly strong? The pink train near the kitchen was donated to the school, but we need it moved to the infant outdoor area so that the children can use it. Any help would be much appreciated.

The 100% attendance prize draw winner this week is ...

PLEASE make sure your child has indoor and outdoor trainers for PE, and a bag for when they get dirty. The carpets and floors in school are really suffering from so many muddy footsteps before a PE lesson has even started! Your help is much appreciated.

Already we are getting excited about the summer as we have just booked to go to the Norfolk Show on Thursday 29th June! This is a whole school event that is run with military precision and a huge number of staff in relation to the children to ensure everyone's safety.

We do hope we will see some new faces at the FoRPS meeting at 3.30pm next Thursday. The ladies will be planning the upcoming events, and your ideas and/or help would be very much appreciated. You never know ... there may be biscuits!!

If your Year 4 child is going to Ringsfield, please don't forget that the next payment of £52 is due by January 27th. Thanks to those who have already paid.
