Thank you to the FoRPS ladies for all your efforts this week, to all who brought in an egg for the Easter Fair, and to everyone who came along yesterday to join the Easter Hunt on the field. The fun in the sunshine raised £221.02 to help support your children's learning.

National Offer Day is the day when parents find out at which school their four-year-old child will start in September 2023. If this applies to you or someone you know, look out for an email or letter on Monday 17th April.

The Green Crusaders are delighted with the entries they have received for their competition to make a toy out of recycled materials. To give more children a chance to enter, they have moved the closing date to Tuesday 18th April. Happy creating!

Mrs Walsh is delighted with all the posters you clever scientists have sent in. The children have talked about their homework with such enthusiasm and they have clearly really enjoyed the tasks. Thank you for supporting your child's learning at home.

The 100% attendance prize draw winner this week is ... Archie in Owls! Enjoy spending your £10 Amazon voucher!

Having become a Fair Aware School, Miss Willer and the Fairtrade Team have been very busy collecting evidence for the next level. After all their work (including organising Fairtrade Fortnight and the bake sales), yesterday we received notification that we are now 'Fair Active'!

Parking on the double yellow and zig zag lines is illegal. Leaving your engine idling is illegal. Parking across people's drives is ignorant. School staff are here to educate your children, not deal with selfish adults who are putting children's lives at risk and should know better.

We continue to advise those witnessing any of these traffic incidents to telephone 101 and report the matter to the police. Alternatively, reports can be made online at <https://www.norfolk.police.uk/contact-us/6-report-it>.

We hope you all have a lovely Easter break with friends and family and that the Easter Bunny pays a visit!

See you on Tuesday 18th April.
